By signing this declaration and submitting the project documentation to UBS AG ("UBS"), the Participant agrees to the following terms & conditions:

Project Ideas

The ideas, concepts, methodologies or formulae (hereafter referred to as 'Project Ideas') which are disclosed to UBS or submitted in the project documentation by the Participant, are deemed by UBS to be original creations of the Participant and are not subject to or infringing any third-party rights, in particular they are not trade or manufacturing secrets. UBS does not consider the Project Ideas to be either confidential or in need of legal protection. UBS reserves the right, without further remuneration to the Participant, to document, enhance, realize or publish the Project Ideas, to make use of them or commercially exploit them for itself or third parties, or where considered necessary, to legally protect them. UBS is not legally bound to publish the Participant's name as supplier of the Project Ideas or to cooperate with the Participant in realizing these. The Participant is entitled to use and realize the Project Ideas after the conclusion of the competition.

Project Documentation

The Participant is the original creator and owner of all rights to the project documentation he/she submits and confirms that on submission of such documentation, no third-party rights are infringed. The ownership of the project documentation passes to UBS, however, the Participant maintains all rights and titles to the project documentation including the right to its realization elsewhere. The Participant grants to UBS the worldwide, permanent and non-revocable right, without further remuneration to the Participant, to publish the documentation, and to use, copy, enhance or commercially distribute such documentation without any restriction whatsoever during the competition and thereafter.
